

Baby Gear Guide

Go anywhere in style with these cute toys and accessories.

Infantino Puppy & Me Auto Mirror Since your baby shouldn't face forward in a car until he's at least 1 year old and at least 20 pounds, you can keep an eye on him—and he can see you—via this cute, colorful doggie mirror, which can be mounted on the seat of your car ($16, www.infantino.com).

Galt Activity Cube The textures, colors and sounds of this bright and fun soft block (check out the udderly cute cow's moo sound) are sure to occupy your baby during car rides or when you have to dash off a quick email or get dinner started ($16, www.galttoys.com).

Baby Happy Stroller Bag No need to sacrifice style with this sleek stroller/diaper bag. Its slim silhouette—which still has plenty of compartments—drapes nicely over a stroller or over your shoulder ($90, www.baby-happy.com).

Rugged Idea Weather-proof Blankie Perfect for breezy or drizzly days, these cozy, colorful blankets feature ties to secure to strollers ($58 to $68, www.ruggedidea.com).

Peanut Shell Baby Sling Available in bold to subtle patterns, this carrier is so easy to use. Just hang it on and place your baby or toddler in—no snaps or buttons required ($38 to $65, www.goo-ga.com).
